Suicide of Girl Followed by Arrest of Man Who Wanted to Marry Her.

DESHLER, O., Oct. 11.—Oren Broke, a young farmer, has been arrested on a warrant charging him with murder in the first degree. Miss Jennie Deker, said to be Broke's sweetheart, took a quantity of poison a week ago and died five days later. The warrant was sworn out by John Miller, brother-in-law of the dead girl, who alleges that Broke bought the arsenic for the girl with the knowledge that she would attempt self-destruction. Her motive is said to have arisen over the objections of the parents of the couple to marry.

GIRL HEARS NOISE AND SEES ROBBERS

Excited Neighbor Tells Police They Rode in Auto, One Disguised as Woman.

An attempt of two burglars to break into the apartment of Frederick W. Harding, a Columbia College clerk, on the top floor of the apartment house at No. 241 West One Hundred and Ninth street, was responsible, according to the police of the West One Hundredth street station, for the tenants of the building seeing things. The burglars were declared by several persons who, it is alleged, were in the house-breakers were busy to have driven up in an automobile. James L. Tiedale told Police Commissioner Connell and Tiedale that one of the men was disguised as a woman, with "an automobile bell, false curls and a long duster." Investigation showed that the two men had entered No. 241 West One Hundred and Ninth street by the unlocked front door. They climbed through a scuttle to the roof and dropped through an unfastened trap into the room. They were evidently novices, for they made such a noise while breaking open Harding's door that Miss Mercedes Temple, who lives across the hall with her mother, peeped out to see what it all was about. The burglars were as much frightened as she when they saw one another and dashed down stairs and out into the street. Mentioning the janitor of No. 241 had been told by tenants of the entrance of two strange men, and he called the police. As they climbed through the scuttle of No. 241 the two burglars were already out of sight. Miss Temple gave the police a description of the men, both of whom were badly dressed and apparently say the police, unused to nonconforming.

Then came Mr. Tiedale, with his tale of "automobile burglars." After questioning all the tenants and finding that none of them had seen the same things as Mr. Tiedale, the police concluded that the burglars were ordinary crooks.

GOLDFIELD MENACED BY FIRE.
GOLDFIELD, Nev., Oct. 11.—Fire threatened the entire city of Goldfield yesterday. The loss was $100,000. A $50,000 saloon owned by L. M. Sullivan, the millionaire backer of Joe (Gent), the pugilist, was destroyed, as well as three adjoining buildings.

If cotton collars are good enough for you you're foolish to pay 15c for them—that's the price of linen collars and linen costs more. You should buy the cotton kind for 10c. The law protects you against inferior cotton collars and says none but linen collars shall be stamped "Linen." See that your collars are stamped "Linen"—"Triangle Brand Linen"—then they are linen. The law says so.

Triangle Brand Linen Collars

are legally stamped "Linen." They are the only 4-ply linen collars sold at 15c, 2 for 25c. Get what you pay for. Linen collars wear twice as long as cotton collars. And 4-ply collars have one-third more material, one-third more wear, one-third more value, than 3-ply collars (such as are often sold for 15c). Triangle Brand Collars are Linen—yet cost you no more than cotton. And Triangle Collars are 4-ply, yet cost you no more than 3-ply.

DOORKEY TO SOLVE MURDER MYSTERY

Found Near Skeleton in Fire Ruins on Asbury Mountain.

Hoping to positively identify the skeleton found in the ash heap on Asbury Mountain, which was the silent witness of a murder, the victim of which had been bound hand and foot and hurled into a fire, detectives from Flemington, N. J., today are armed with a "doorkey" found near the skeleton, which they will endeavor to fit to the bone of one of three missing men, any one of whom may have been murdered. Chief of Police Adams, of Newark, is not positive that the skeleton is that of Frank L. Hopkins, of Newark; nor is Frank R. Aggar, business partner of Hopkins. It has been shown that Hopkins disappeared on July 21 to go to Montclair to pay off laborers. He never reached Montclair, and the only trace of him obtained after that was when a few days later a report was received at Newark that Hopkins had been seen to alight from a train at Junction, Hunterdon County, and walk away in the direction of Charles town, where Mrs. Hopkins's mother resided and where he had often visited. Soon after her husband's disappearance Mrs. Hopkins moved from Newark and went to the home of her parents. She is there still. I cannot believe that Frank Hopkins was murdered for his money," Mr. Aggar said. "I believe when he went away, that he had gone to Panama, as he frequently spoke of opportunities there for making money and seemed possessed with a desire to go there. From remarks he made I understood that he was twice married and that his first wife was dead."

Chief Adams has received a dir-ular letter sent out by the police authorities of Flemington, county seat of Hunterdon County, in which Asbury Mountain is situated. This letter told of the disappearance, Aug. 18, 1896, of Ralph Byron Stanbury, of Flemington. "That description tallies somewhat with that of Hopkins," Chief Adams remarked, "and it seems to me there is as much reason to believe the ghostly discovery of the Watchdog Mountain was all that remains of the Flemington man."

The third missing man is Michael Prokop, who was employed by the Jersey Central Railroad. Prokop was a poor man and if he was murdered robbery is not thought to have prompted the crime.

A woman who arrived from the West on a New Jersey Central Railroad train last night was found dead in the women's waiting room in the Jersey City station this morning. She had a ticket on the evening train for New York, which sailed today for Hamburg, with railroad transportation to Oldenburg, Germany, made out in the name of Nathaniel Kraver, of Twelfth street, Chicago. The number of the street was not given.

The woman was apparently about forty years old. She had a small sum of money and wore a gold watch and chain and a gold wedding ring. She had a small value and some cooking utensils. Her death is attributed to heart disease.
